News

Monique's Ikat techniques workshop is open for bookings (but has since filled its places due to enthusiasm from our weavers!)

The 16 shaft Ashford loom is now available for use (good for sampling before putting a project on the AVL).

Remember that the annual members exhibition will be held on 1st May, collection of items will happen towards the end of April.

NEXT TIME

Let's discuss colour!

How do we get out of our comfort zone to experiment with colour?

How has colour surprised us when sampling?

Please bring show and tell on this theme.

Show and Tell

Maree has finished her silk cord table runners and her zero-waste tunic and skirt.

Necia completed her summer school rugs. The weft here is repurposed from one of Ingrid Baas-Becking's projects.

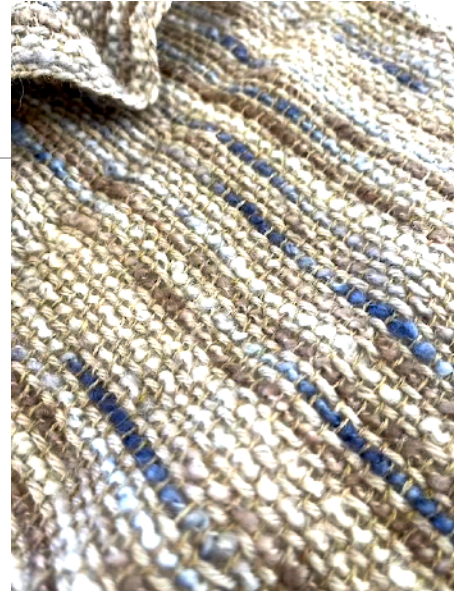

Pam brought along an East Timorese piece woven with hand spun and Ikat dyed stripes.

Jenny showed us her jacket which is in the finishing stages, including her hand made button.

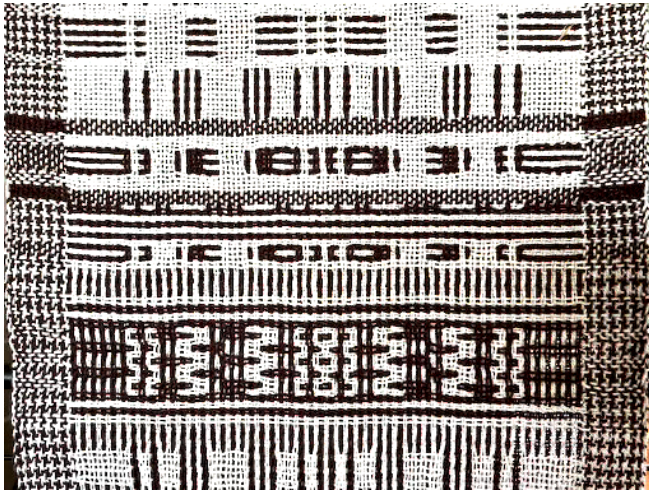

Takumi finished an abundance of lovely scarves on his handmade loom (2 ply and 4 ply).

Barbara brought some honeycomb hybrid samples to share.

Jess showed three samples of deflected double weave at different setts.
